

Kudos for Mois' Mobileye Talk

"Mois is the true Ambassador of Israel"
– Danny Danon, Israeli Ambassador to the UN

Mois,

I hope you are well! Just wanted to thank you for meeting with our Illinois group while they were in Jerusalem. The Mobileye visit was, hands down, the favorite company visit, a real highlight of the trip. Everyone loved it!

I can't thank you enough for receiving our group.

*Best wishes,
Dan Anderson
Associate Director for International Programs
University of Illinois*

Rabbi Navon,

It was truly special to spend the time with you on our visit last week with my students from the College of Business at the University of Illinois.

The students constantly go back to your talk as one of the most impactful parts of the visit to Israel. And this was for many reasons, but primarily because you were authentic and purposeful.

*Thanks again for all,
Dovid Teichtel
University of Illinois*

Good Morning Mois,

I had to run with the Ambassador yesterday and didn't have a chance to say goodbye.

So thank you again, it was fascinating!

*Kim Webb
Assistant to UN Israeli Ambassador*

Dear Mois,

What a pleasure it was for all of us to meet you and to hear your thoughts that so meaningfully and wisely integrated our Jewish religious and ethical values and our imperatives for tikkun olam. You set a very high standard for all of us to learn from and emulate. And as I think back on what you said and how you said it, I am left with the overall feeling that you also represented for us a wonderful example of עבדו את ה' בשמחה.

Hi Mois,

I want you to know that after our two-week program we asked the group about their experiences and your presentation was the highlight of the trip.

Stephanie Strauss
Executive Director, Yeshiva University in Israel

Dear Mr. Navon,

I wanted to thank you for taking the time and explaining to the group how Mobileye got to where it is now. It's inspiring to see a God-fearing Jew as yourself in the leadership of such a successful company.

Menajem Benchimol,
Yeshiva University

Hi Mois,

Was amazing hearing from you during the YU tech trip last week. Thanks so much for your time!

Dear Mois,

Once again, on behalf of the whole team here at Yeshiva University, I want to thank you for hosting and speaking to our students last week.

Visiting Mobileye and hearing from you was an immeasurably successful component of the trip. Thanks to your presentation, the students of YU gained a rare and comprehensive perspective of Israeli innovation, technology, entrepreneurship, and humanity. The visit enhanced their classroom education in ways that nothing else can, and we thank you for being a part of their experiential learning.

Warmest wishes,
Stephanie Strauss
Executive Director, Yeshiva University in Israel

Hello Mr. Navon,

I am writing to say thank you for your inspiring and informative speech today. I am deeply touched and inspired by your speech. Your mentioning about “fixing the world” as your purpose, your life experience, and the development of Mobileye made a lasting impression on me.

Again, thanks a lot for your time and great sharing.

Hi Mois,

Wanted to thank you again for yesterday. We got great feedback from the students. Personally, I loved your talk, and definitely related to several of the points you mentioned, especially tikun olam and how to find a meaning in the personal and professional quest.

*Barak Cohen
MBA Candidate – Class of 2018 - Cornell University

Hi Mois,

I was one of the Teacher Assistants in last year's trek and I found your lecture to be fascinating (even for an Israeli that knows most of the information that you are sharing with us). Also, at the end of the trek we had a student survey and the meeting with you was rated as one of the most powerful and insightful meeting that we had.

Dear Rabbi Navon,

Thank you for your inspirational speeches at Technion this past shabbat. I was especially moved by your description of the miracle of Jewish history.

*Sincerely,

Mois,

It was a pleasure meeting you yesterday and welcoming you to UCLA Anderson. Thank you so much for such a great presentation and discussion. It was a very interested and engaged group and the feedback has been terrific. The students really enjoyed and appreciated hearing from you. Thank you for answering all their questions, for being so open and for sharing so much about the Mobileye story as well as your own personal journey. We do hope that you enjoyed your time with us as much as the students enjoyed meeting, hearing and learning from you.

*Lucy E. Allard, Executive Director

Rabbi Navon,

I wanted to thank you for coming to the UCLA Anderson campus about a month ago to speak to us about your journey to and throughout Mobileye. I'm originally from Los Angeles as well and have a lot of family that has made aliyah to Israel, so your story resonated with me very much. In my career to date, I've been interested in how business can be used as a tool to solve social / environmental problems, so I particularly liked your message that we must unite spirituality and meaning with business and learn to have a motivator that we care about beyond promoting our own selves. I also liked your message of "gam zu le tovah" – to learn to not let a failure discourage us.

Dear Mr. Navon,

Thank you so much again for sharing your wonderful presentation with my group from Columbia University's School of International Affairs. I was very moved by your narration, which intermixed Judaism with business acumen. I have 8+ years of experience working in the media industry, and am working now on pivoting my career towards Cyber security policy. I'm very inspired now to dive deeper into my Jewish practice - your speech, along with my trip to Israel so far - has really highlighted the magic of the "x" factor when it comes to the success and resiliency of the Jewish people: faith!

On behalf of the UVA Darden School and the students who had the pleasure of hearing from you, thank you so much for taking the time to speak with us. It was a true pleasure to learn more about Mobileye, the company's story, your story, strategy, and future direction. I really appreciated your advice about finding your purpose and using it to make a positive impact in the world for others. That really is what this MBA degree is all about for the students and I think you brought it home for them in a new way with your talk yesterday.

Your presentation was excellent and the students have provided wonderful feedback to me today about how much they enjoyed the discussion with you- very relevant to what they are learning about here in Israel and their personal development. Thank you so much for organizing such an impactful session. Really appreciate you sharing your time and expertise with the students. Thank you!

Hi Mois,

Absolutely fascinating talk today, thank you so much for telling your story, the Mobileye journey and a glimpse into the future. One of the most interesting aspects I gathered from your talk and of course your wife's advice was to go 'all in' burn your bridges and move to Israel with a 'purpose' without looking back. I think this example perfectly portrays the quote you presented to describe Israel as having a purpose.

*Many thanks,
Justin Cesman*

Hi Mois,

Your talk today resonated with me on multiple levels, but an almost parenthetical note left me with a more profound point helping me today. My good friend and the father of my son's best friend was killed today in the pigua. It's a painful loss to klal Yisrael as it is every time it happens. But, for me, I know well his wife and whole family who have played an instrumental role in my family's acclimation to Israel eight years ago. In the press, we'll read that Ari was a fighter for our people and talked with passion and zeal about some of the themes you mentioned today - the purpose of the Jewish people and our return to our homeland, the need to live a purpose-full life in an effort to make the world a better place. But, he was also just a good father to his two daughters and two boys. So, from your talk I walked away with a new nuanced understanding of Gam Zu L'Tova. Your formulation was refreshing - a philosophy of life that helps you pick up the pieces and move on - and reached me on what turned out to be a particularly challenging day. I have not had a more challenging mincha in the past 25 years as I had this afternoon. But, hearing the Gam Zu L'Tova from you today is giving me some strength but not only because you presented it in a more utilitarian philosophy. What gave it more credibility is that it came from you - a successful person in the "real world". I hear it plenty in the Chasidic influences that hit my radar, but it doesn't resonate as strongly. So thank you. Thank you for sharing your perspective in a personal manner. More than I learned about MobileEye and the development of single view depth perception, I gained a long-term vision on how to better grapple with challenges and help on a day that I needed it more than I could have known.

As I am heading shortly out to the levaya I wanted to thank you. I hope our paths cross again in the near future.

Micah
